In making this application, I agree:

1. That the teacher and school authorities have permission to discipline my child while on the way to and from school (school bus) and while at school. I will support the CCS code of conduct for my child and will cooperate with proper discipline and enforcement in the home.
2. That I will cooperate in:
 - A. My regular and prompt tuition payments at the first of each month.
 - B. My practical help in various activities of the school as time permits.
 - C. Faithful prayer for the school.
 - D. Regular attendance, to the best of my ability, at Parent-Teacher Fellowship meetings and parent-teacher conferences.
3. That I will abide by school policies concerning grievances. Should a problem arise in any respect, I will register the necessary complaint with the principal or teacher, according to those policies, and will seek resolution following the pattern present in scripture.
4. That I have read the school statement of faith and am in full agreement with it. I will not bring denominationalism into the school and will work with other Christians within the area of our agreement as found in the statement of faith.

We have completed this application fully and accurately. We realize the responsibility for our children is great and we will work diligently with the school for the benefit of our child.
